Melbourne Numismatic Exhibition

Event Commemorated

This medalet was issued to commemorate the numismatic exhibition held in the Lower Melbourne Town Hall; this was at least the seventh public exhibition held by the NAV. This medallion was on sale at this exhibition.

The exhibition was opened by the then Federal Treasurer, Mr Harold Holt, on 26 October. The exhibition ran for three days from Monday 26 to Wednesday 28 October 1964. During the three days, 3200 people visited the exhibition.

The exhibition featured displays of:

- ◆ Australasian tokens;
- ◆ Early Australian coins;
- ◆ Ancient Greek and Roman coins;
- ◆ Australian Commonwealth coins;
- ◆ Australian gold coins;
- ◆ Varieties of Australian Commonwealth coins;
- ◆ British war medals; and
- ◆ Australian paper money.

Medallion

This 28 mm diameter medalet was designed by Ray Jewell and struck by K G Luke, Melbourne in one metal:

- ◆ Brass (2037 pieces)

These medalets were issued unnumbered.
